SUSSEX COUNTY PARAMEDICS WELCOME NEW EMPLOYEES

For immediate release:

MR 06-07

August 31, 2006

[Georgetown, Delaware] – Sussex County EMS welcomes new employees Robert L. Patterson III, Gregory Eyler, Lewis Sacks, Michael Lloyd, Matt Farlow, Matt Gajdos, Frank Mayhorn, and Jordan Dattoli.

Robert L. Patterson III began working for SCEMS after being a paramedic for a year in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Prior to coming to Delaware, Robert participated in the Hurricane Katrina relief effort as part of a Pennsylvania Strike Team. Robert lives in Bridgeville and enjoys the beach and water sport recreations.

Gregory Eyler was a Paramedic in Fredrick County Maryland for two years before coming to SCEMS. Gregory has an Associate Degree and is planning on pursuing a Bachelors Degree in Emergency Medicine. He resides with his wife in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware.

Michael Lloyd is a new member of our Technical Services Division. Prior to employment with SCEMS, he was a residential wiring technician. Michael lives in Laurel. He is an accomplished piano player and also enjoys paintball and snowboarding.
